A few kilometers from Lecce, behind the Galateo di S. Cesario, we offer an entire building consisting of a ground floor and first floor to be renovated. The ground floor property has a floor area of approximately 160m² with a rear courtyard. There are therefore 3 bedrooms, living room, kitchen, dining room, 2 bathrooms, closet and storage. The first floor, of approximately 120m², has two bedrooms, living room, bathroom, kitchen, dining room and level terrace. The property, built in the 1960s, retains the characteristics of those years, both as regards the flooring and also as regards the layout of the spaces. The size and state of conservation allow you to customize and create the solution best suited to your needs. Some of the rooms, present in the courtyard, require a total renovation of the floors. Independence and versatility are the advantageous characteristics of this solution, ideal for those looking for two adjacent solutions, a home studio or for those looking for a large size with a garden.
