In the Taccu area, just a 5-minute drive from Cardedu, nestled in the quiet countryside, we offer for sale a charming farmhouse in need of renovation, surrounded by approximately 15 hectares of land and boasting spectacular sea views. The property comprises three buildings, located a short distance from each other: a ground-floor building with a large open space entirely made of stone, a second small outbuilding in its unfinished state, and the main house, consisting of two independent apartments, one on the ground floor and one on the first floor with a separate entrance, all in need of renovation.

This property represents an excellent opportunity both for those seeking a peaceful, green environment and for those seeking an investment, such as a residence or a guesthouse in the countryside. The property's value is further enhanced by the splendid sea view, making it a unique and rare offering.
